NOTE FROM ACTING HEAD TEACHER

Welcome back and a very special warm welcome to our new pupils and parents who joined our MMPS family this week.

The highlight of my holidays was, without any doubt, our pupils' performance at the Zain Bhikha concert. They were amazing, masha'Allah, and we are very proud of them. Please check our Facebook page...! :)

I am sure the highlight of Ms Khawaja's holiday, on the other hand, was her wedding during the winter holidays :) We all warmly congratulate her and wish her happiness and Allah's blessings.

HADITH OF THE WEEK

Allah the Exalted said: We have not sent you except as a mercy to the worlds.
Surah Al-Anbiya 21:107

The Right of the Fortnight

"Every child has the right to a name and nationality"

HIGHLIGHT OF THE WEEK

Year 5 & 6 had a visit from Jude from the Peace Museum who delivered a workshop on: 'How the values we hold affect the choices we make.'

She introduced the children to brothers Fred and Eric who felt a sense of duty to very different causes which led them to make opposing choices. One brother felt a duty to go to war for his country and the other was thoroughly against war. This got the children thinking and discussing about the choices we make and why!

The Nasheed Squad performed brilliantly alongside Zain Bhikha in his Story Time Concert in Manchester on the 30th Dec.
