NOTE FROM ACTING HEAD TEACHER

With the General Election just week's away, I delivered an assembly about the election process to KS2. I told pupils about the process and brought in my ballot paper from home. They were all sent off with the challenge of spelling 'constituencies' independently—Dojos promised for getting it right. Ask your child what a 'snap election' is... Nothing to do with a crocodile, apparently.

HADITH OF THE WEEK

The Prophet(saw) said:
"There is no better gift a parent can give a child than good manners"
(Tirmidhi)

WHO IS ON TIME?

It's a tie! Year 1 & Year 6 have been the most punctual class this week.

HIGHLIGHT OF THE WEEK

Nursery were getting their hands (and other things) dirty with some fun messy play, exploring colour.

Juma'ah Special

Delivered by Abid Anwar of Cheadle mosque about the importance of Quran and dua.

In assembly today Mrs Ghafari spoke about the upcoming General Election, summarising what it's all about.

Year 4,5 and 6 enjoyed an activity packed taster day at KD and MIGSG on the 26th November. Paper plane contests, a tour around the world, sports, crafts and more.
