

Teacher Voice

Haris It has been lovely to see you flourish into a kind and conscientious young man. Keep being kind
Mrs T. Rahimi

Junayd, It was a pleasure to teach you during lockdown. Thankyou for teaching me so much about travelling around the U.K., especially Scotland! Miss N. Hatahet

Hunayn, my best memory of you is leading the Year 3 children in Salah over the year. You will have earnt lots of reward. Mrs Jannat

Messages from the staff of MMPS for Year 6

Amaar even in Reception you were always great to chat to, entertaining, cheeky and fun. Lots of duas. Mrs R. Chaudhry

Rumaysa, in Reception class you loved dressing up in the home corner, putting on hijab, serving friends cups of tea and making cakes in the oven. A beautiful kind and caring nature. Miss Grant.

Dear Eman, I watched you learn and grow and change from day to day. You are a star. MashAllah! Mrs S. Chaudhri.

Haniya, you have been the quiet, bright one from the first time I had the pleasure of teaching you. May you continue from success to success. Mr Badenjki

Eesa, you have been super since day one in the Nursery. Stay Super!! Mrs R. Osman

Maria, you have been a lovely student with a beautiful, winning smile. I have been proud of teaching you. Wishing you all the best. Mrs Hussein.

Abdullah watching you work as a team member and leader has been wonderful. Fantastic skills for the future. Mrs Khanum

Ibraheem R. It has been amazing to see you challenge yourself and test your boundaries. Mrs Khanum

Rabia, it's amazing to see how much you have grown in confidence over the last two years! Mrs Benashur.

Iqraa, you have shown so many talents and interests from your time at MMPS; from Nasheed Squad to Daff club, to football to drama. Keep it up, I know you will do well in whatever you choose in the future. Mrs I. Chaudhry.

Ibrahim F Well done for always being a team player in games: it was always noticed by your peers and younger children around the school!
Mr Anwar

Shanzay, you have blossomed into a mature and conscientious pupil. This is an excellent foundation for you to continue to build upon. Mrs Mian.

Omar, it has been a pleasure to see you persevere and have a go at anything given to you in Year 6, keep attempting those challenges! Mrs Fiaz.

Adam, you developed confidence and showed growth mindset to achieve your fantastic SATs results this year! Mrs Fiaz
