NOTE FROM HEAD TEACHER

Dear Parents / Carers

As-salaamu alaikom

Our final Phonics Workshop for Parents was yesterday and immediate feedback by attendees was that parents found the workshop very useful and interactive.

The importance of reading and 'being read to' was emphasised in all the workshops; indeed reading and firm roots in their deen will serve our children throughout their lives, insha'Allah.

Our wonderful PTA has been busy all week preparing for today's BBQ – a delicious end to our week.

I wish you all a wonderful weekend and hope that you'll find the time to sit down with your children and read a story together.

Wasalaam,

Mrs Ghafari

The Right of the Fortnight

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE WEEK

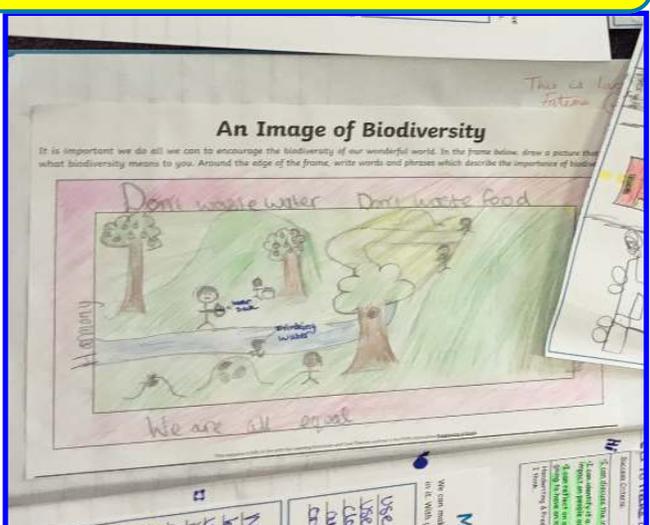

Talking about senses, Nursery tasted sweet and salty using the tongue, and then dipped hands in warm and cold water to use the sense of touch.

Year 1 went on a Phonics stick hunt. Look at all the letters we found.

Year 3 have been creating Autumn inspired shaped poems using their art work to inspire writing.

Year 6 have been discussing how to make our world more sustainable.

Year 5 have written newspaper articles which they will be typing up on the computers on Friday.

Year 4 are learning about the work of Chanel in Art, and have used ideas to create their own Chanel inspired hat prototypes.
