NOTE FROM HEAD TEACHER

Dear Parents / Carers

As-salaamu alaikom

We had this year's first live parents' evening on Wednesday. Having face-to-face meetings meant that there were some inevitable delays with appointments; however, the waiting time offered the opportunity to look at children's work and have a chat with other parents.

We are taking a 'hybrid' approach to parents' evening this year and parents will have one live- and one virtual meeting with their child's class teacher which will offer the best of both worlds, insha'Allah.

We are now looking forward to next week's Ambassador Elections and I wish you all a restful weekend.

Wasalaam,
Mrs Ghafari
