Head Teacher: Mrs D. Ghafari

Assalamualaikum dear parents,

We pray that this letter reaches you and your family in the best of health and imaan.

This letter is going out to all parents to inform that an election process will be starting in the coming weeks for new office bearers in the MMPS PTA.

We thank all current serving role holders for all of their continued efforts and contributions to help us achieve all that we have up to this point with respect to enrichment activities.

Please find attached details of each of the available roles.
