Note from the Headteacher

Dear Parents / Carers
As-salaamu alaikom.
Tuesday was 'Safer Internet Day' and assemblies were based on that theme.

The internet and social media in particular present a big challenge for our children and it is essential that they are educated and alerted and equipped with skills to deal with dangers they may pose. Consequently, educators – which includes both teachers and parents – need to be as much 'ahead of the game' as possible so we can continue to guide, advise and protect our children.

You'll find useful articles and leaflets with advice for parents on our website (e-safety tab). Please do have a look.

What Is Safer Internet Day?

Safer Internet Day is an annual event which is organised by the UK Safer Internet Centre and is celebrated in approximately 180 countries worldwide!

The aim of the day is to raise awareness of Internet safety, promoting positive and responsible usage.

It is a day to discuss how to look after yourself and others while staying safe in an online space.

Safer Internet Day

Assembly this week focussed on Safer Internet Day. I think Safer Internet Day is important because so many people use the internet and we must stay safe online. There are people who bully and think it is cool. They think no one will find out. Always report harmful online content!

This week in Art the children looked at art made by Claude Monet. We were inspired by his famous garden paintings and produced our own using finger painting

Inspired by the Mayan invention of hot chocolate, Y6 made chocolate bars in D&T with their own company name, wrappers and ingredients.

Are other people allowed to make mistakes?
How many mistakes should we allow before we say/do something back?

Talking Thursdays- Year 5 talked about giving people the benefit of the doubt vs advising them (in an Islamic way) if we see something wrong.
